Dear Mr Robson,

Thank you for your enquiry of the 17th March 2025 in which you requested access to information held by the Wales Office concerning the electrification of the South Wales and North Wales rail mainlines.

We have treated your enquiry as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

1. What is the most recent cost estimate the UK Government has made of the total cost of the electrification of the remainder of the South Wales mainline to be?
2. What is the most recent cost estimate the UK Government has made of the total cost of the electrification of the North Wales mainline to be?

Our response

We have performed a comprehensive search of our systems and determined that the Wales Office does not hold the requested information.

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request or the manner in which it was handled you have the right to request an internal review. Such a request should be submitted within two calendar months of the date of this response and addressed to:

Wales Office
Gwydyr House
Whitehall
London
SW1A 2NP
United Kingdom

Email: walesofficefoi@ukgovwales.gov.uk

Please mark your request clearly; highlighting specific areas of concern, including any arguments that support your view and remembering to include the reference number above.

If you remain dissatisfied, you may ask the Information Commissioner's Office \(ICO\) to investigate any aspect of your case. Please note that the ICO are likely to expect an internal review to have been completed before they commence their investigation.

If you have any queries or concerns about this response please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,

Freedom of Information Team
Wales Office
